

Testimonies from the Students and Parents on their experience of engaging with the Foundation under Nightingale Scholarships – Cohort 2025 .

10 students under Cohort 2025 receiving support from the Foundation. One student and her parent could not attend.

Ms. Nandutu Michelle submitted that she was a beneficiary under Cohort 2024 while in P7 under the Archbishop Dr. J. Kiwanuka Primary School and currently a beneficiary of Cohort 2025 in senior 1 at St. Maria Goretti Senior Secondary School, Katende. She thanked the Foundation for the support and recognized the love for the girl child demonstrated by the Founder. She appealed to the parents to work hard and meet their financial obligations in a timely manner. In addition, she reported that she had attended the empowerment programmes for the beneficiaries, offered by the Foundation, and commended the positive impact on the wholesome development of an individual. Examples included culinary skills and cooking for entrepreneurship.

Ms. Mulindwa Daisy reported that she was a beneficiary of the Cohort 2024 while in Primary 7 at Kyeswa Primary School and proudly indicated that she has continued to get support under cohort 2025 as senior 1 student St. Charles, SSS, Bujjuko. She thanked the Foundation for education support which enabled complete her academic year P7 without being sent back home for non-payment of fees. She thanked the parents for entrusting the Foundation with their children. She recognized the books and other scholastic materials provided by the Foundation and their immense contribution to her academic performance. In conclusion, she thanked God for good results in P.L.E (2024).

Parents' Comments

Mr. Namasonko, parent of Michelle Nandutu, thanked God for Foundation and the Founder for their contribution to the education, discipline and empowerment of the girls, and particularly his daughter. He stated that it was a blessing to part of the Foundation and declared his commitment to work hard to enhance his earnings to meet his obligation for the education of his children. He prayed to God for longevity of the Foundation needed to deliver the desired positive developments among the girl child in the future and on a sustainable basis.

Mr. Namasonko sharing his reflection on the impact of the Foundation.

Ms. Namakula Justine, a parent of Ms. Mulindwa Daisy, greatly welcomed the support from the Foundation and CCT that enabled her daughter to remain at school without returning home to collect outstanding balances of the fees, as was the case before the intervention by the Foundation. She called upon her daughter and other girls to read well and ensure the “blessing” is sustained to contribute to realization of the mission of the Founder. She appreciated that her daughter was taught how to prepare daddies and hard corn and is currently preparing eats for one school. She advised her fellow parents to work hard and pay their children’s school fees, and most importantly, suspend luxury life and prioritize their children’s education.

Other Parents and Students

In addition, other parents and students were given an opportunity to share their experience of engaging with the Foundation. Each parent commended the education support and committed to fulfil their obligation towards education of their children. Likewise, the rest of the students appreciated the support and promised to study hard to realize the goal of the program.

A Word of Wisdom and Guidance from the CCT

Mr. Gyavira introduced himself as the youth counselor on LC1 Council for Nakirebbe. He advised students to appreciate education support as a golden opportunity and study hard to reap the targeted impact on their career development. In addition, he called upon parents not to lose hope for accessing more opportunities and underscored the need to honor their obligation to support their children's education. Concluding his remarks, he expressed disappointment to many parents who came late for the meeting and urged them to learn the value of proper time management.
